Types of CLC Licenses

I: Internal Campus Supplier (ICS)
- Application Inquiries: Jenny Wallace
  jwallace@clc.com
- Allows a company to produce merchandise bearing the trademarks of collegiate institutions for university departments and related entities for internal consumption only/not for resale. Was known as a "Restricted" license until 2011.
- Most expeditious and least costly to pursue with strict limitations on distribution.
- Requires an Internal Campus Supplier application available for download on CLC.com.

L: Local License
- Application Inquiries: Makayla Burtz
  mburtz@clc.com
- Allows a company to produce merchandise bearing the trademarks of collegiate institutions within the same state as the business' location for university departments and related entities in addition to retail distribution.
- Next easiest to pursue. Costs are higher and geographic restrictions exist.
- Unlimited institutions within same state as business location or one school within 200 miles of institution and out of state.
- Can apply for an institution outside of their state if Alumnus of said institution. Become ineligible to hold license for any other institutions in their state without submitting a Standard Application.
- Local licensees must be licensed for one full year before being considered for a Standard License.
- Contact CLC for special provisions relating to U.S. Air Force Academy/U.S. Military Academy & Washington D.C.
- Requires quarterly royalty reporting.

S: Standard License
- Application Inquiries: Makayla Burtz
  mburtz@clc.com
- Allows a company to produce merchandise bearing the trademarks of unlimited collegiate institutions for university departments and related entities, in addition to retail distribution through all channels.
- The most challenging and expensive type of license to pursue.
- Companies must exhibit well-established marketing plans, existing product distribution, solid financial history of selling licensed products and/or are introducing unique and commercially viable product to collegiate market.
- Standard License applicants should provide as much detailed information as possible in application to improve likelihood of acceptance by institutions.
- Requires monthly royalty reporting.

Definitions & Parameters
- Allows a company to produce merchandise bearing the trademarks of collegiate institutions for university departments and related entities for internal consumption only/not for resale. Was known as a "Restricted" license until 2011.
- Sales to restricted distribution only. Sales must be categorized as royalty exempt by the individual institution.
- Sales to university bookstores or product being re-sold, and/or used for promotional purchases (gift with purchase) not permitted under ICS License. Internal orders that are determined to be royalty bearing require ICSR Addendum. Once addendum is finalized, ICS companies must report royalties on a quarterly basis.
